

Hugs, Kisses For 'Nicky' From Fannie

Miss Brice Says She is the Happiest Woman in New York—Visit to Baby as Soon as Bail is Arranged.

Fannie Brice at the Criminal Court Building today.

"I am the happiest Jewish woman in New York to-day."

She sat in the detective headquarters in the District Attorney's office. Beside her sat Nicky. They held hands constantly and at intervals she would lean close and whisper in his ear, and they would throw their arms about each other.

"What did you do when you first saw him?"

"I did everything you could imagine. I threw my arms around him and kissed him. It was the happiest moment I have had since the 11th of February, when he disappeared."

"The first thing I want him to do when his bond is provided is to see our little baby, Frances. She is nine months old and I know Nicky is just dying to see her."

At this point the conversation was interrupted by detectives, who took Nicky across the street to the Tombs. Miss Brice and The Evening World reporter walked a few steps behind. Nicky waited for a few moments in the Ward's office at the Tombs and Miss Brice continued:

"What was the first thing Nicky said to you when you met him? Did he tell you he was innocent?"

"Oh, he didn't have to tell me that," she said. "I knew it all the time. He was just too happy to say anything at first. We just kissed and hugged each other."

She was asked if she would appear on the stage to-night.

"Yes, indeed I am," she said. "If Nicky gets out on bail. But as I have been up all night for two nights, I am afraid I may not be able to put as much pep into my act as I would like to in celebration of this glorious reunion."

Asked if she had known where Nicky was hiding all this time, she said:

"This is the first I have known of his whereabouts since Feb. 11. Neither have I had any communication with him."

Just at this point Fannie came in and said to Miss Brice:

"Everything is all right. In ten minutes it will all be straightened out. The bond will be provided."

Fannie then turned to the reporter and said:

"Oh, I! I ever said a Jewish prayer, I am going to say it now. She took a powder puff from her bag and began to powder her nose. At that moment the detectives led Nicky away to a cell and Miss Brice exclaimed:

"Oh, that was what I did not want!"

Mr. Fallon led her away for a private talk and could be observed re-arranging her hair.

Miss Brice looked as tired as she said she felt, but she was clad from her pink toque (with grapes on it) to her brown pumps and brown silk stockings. She wore a dark dress and coat and a mink neckpiece.

ALICE DE LAMAR TO GET $9,370,442 OF FATHER'S ESTATE

Appraisal Shows an Increase of $1,034,408 in the Value of Capt. DeLamar's Art Treasures.

The filing of the transfer tax appraisal for the estate of Capt. Joseph Raphael De Lamar, who died on Dec. 1, 1918, shows that the value of his art objects and other personal effects increased $1,034,408 after his death in 1918 and the one filed yesterday. The first appraisal totaled $2,322,937, and the last one, $3,357,345.

It has been disclosed that after Capt. De Lamar's collection in his city home at No. 223 Madison Avenue and in his office at No. 43 Exchange Place had been appraised at $2,322,937, and those in his country place at Glen Cove at $257,321, many of the articles listed had been sold at higher figures than the ones appearing on the filed schedules. One such item was an Ardell rug, listed at $17,500 and sold for $57,000.

The total sum left to Capt. De Lamar's daughter, Alice Antoinette De Lamar, was $5,310,442. The share of the three residuary legatees, Harvard, Johns Hopkins and Columbia Universities, was $5,641,401 each.

GIRLS WROTE TO RUECKERT.

A ransacking search by the District Attorney's office and the police of Fritz Rueckert's apartment, in Hoboken, in which he was shot to death, has disclosed between forty and fifty letters from young women. Some of these are in English, others in German; several are affectionately subscribed and not a few were dated only a short time before Rueckert's death. The letters have been given to detectives with instructions to locate the writers, several of whom signed New York addresses.

The police still believe revenge was the motive for the assassination.

AMERICAN SHOES LOWER IN CANADA THAN PRICES HERE

High Canadian Official Shows Import Value of Men's Footwear Is $3.43, Women's $3.38.

TORONTO, May 15.

SIR JOHN WILLSON, president of the Canadian Reconstruction Association, said to-day that shoes manufactured in the United States are exported to Canada at prices considerably below those on the American market, basing his statement on official figures of exports from the United States from July, 1919, to February, 1920.

"The average stated value per pair of children's shoes and shoes exported to Canada was $5 cents, compared with an average value at $1.55 for exports to all other countries," he said.

"In the case of men's shoes and shoes, the average stated value of exports to Canada was $3.13 per pair. This was lower than the average value of exports to any other except Jamaica, which takes cheap footwear."

"As regards women's shoes, the exports to Canada averaged $3.38 per pair, lower than to any other country except some in the tropics."

HUBBY HID HIS LOVE NOTE IN A 'NIGHTY'

Wife Tells of Alleged Romance With Girl Whose Name He Found in Cigarette Box.

In an affidavit filed to-day in the Supreme Court by his young wife, Charles Hess, twenty-three, is described as a careless gentleman who writes letters to young ladies, stuffs the letters into the pocket of his "nighty" for safe keeping and tries away to work in the morning leaving them in bed.

Julia Hess, twenty-two, complaining that her heart is so weak that she is unable to support the fourteen-month-old Walter and herself, asked for alimony of $20 a week pending the trial of a suit for separation. Justice Wallace granted the motion.

"Sometime in December, 1919," said the young wife, "I found my husband writing a letter. When I leaned over his shoulder and asked whom it was for he said he was 'writing for a job.' That night I saw the note in his nightgown. It was still there when he departed in the morning. It was addressed to 'Dear Friend Helen' and told the girl of finding her name in a package of cigarettes. He wished Helen a merry Christmas, but he didn't say a word about being a married man with a baby boy."

DENIES SHE FLED FROM AUTO WRECK

Prisoner Says She is Mrs. Marjorie Gair—Police Say She Ignored Command to Halt.

A richly gowned woman who gave her name as Mrs. Marjorie Gair, No. 847 East 19th Street, Flatbush, and who the police say is the daughter-in-law of Robert Gair, paper box manufacturer, to-day was held in $1,000 bail by Justice O'Neill in Coney Island Court, charged with escaping from the scene of an accident in which her motor car is alleged to have crashed into a smaller car, without giving her name and address.

The accident occurred at Ocean Parkway and Avenue T, when a machine, in which were riding Louis Gair, No. 411 Queens Avenue, and Miss Hannah Gair, No. 41 Church Avenue, was struck by a larger machine and hurled against a tree. The larger machine disappeared despite a policeman's command to halt.

Mrs. Gair pleaded not guilty and asked for an adjournment until next Thursday to obtain counsel, and then telephoned friends to ask for bail.

BOLSHEVIKI ORDER MARTIAL LAW

Moscow Government Applies It to Russian Central and Northern Provinces and Archangel.

MOSCOW, May 15.—A decree issued by the Central Executive Committee, dated May 11, proclaims martial law in the provinces of central and northern Russia and Archangel.

The provincial executive committees are given full power to protect railways, military supplies, magazines and depots and to control telegraphic and telephone communication. A warrant of arrest may be issued on a charge of selling whisky. Starch was discharged on the ground that he knew nothing about it. But it is held that under an injunction he might be compelled to forfeit a $1,000 bond, pay a fine and serve a jail sentence.

Ross said he would also ask injunction against Henry Fink, proprietor of the Ritz restaurant in Brooklyn; Mike Minden, who has a place at Howard Avenue and Monroe Street, and Fred Schumann, whose place is near Borough Hall. Arrests have been made before in these places.

NEW WAGE RAISE BY TEXTILE MILLS

Likely to Extend to 300,000 Workers—Pay Is 100 Per Cent. Above 1916 Rate.

BOSTON, May 15.—A wave of wage advance announcements, to become effective May 11, rolled in to-day from New England textile centers, indicating that the increase would extend to virtually all the 300,000 textile operatives in the district. Wherever the amount of the advance was definitely stated it was 10 per cent.

This will bring the level of textile wages, already at the highest stage in history, more than 100 per cent higher than it was four years ago.

tive government. The people, in my opinion, should trust their representatives to act for them. If they don't like what their representatives do, they can elect others and thus repudiate what has been done."

"Then if you had been a member of the Senate, you would have voted against the Prohibition amendment?" the Vice President was asked.

"Oh, yes," was the reply, "and my views have been well known. Mind you, I do not use liquor, never serve it at my table, and I would to God that no one else did. But I object to the way Prohibition has been imposed, though again, I must insist now that it is here it must be enforced."

"As a matter of fact, irrespective of the question of personal habits, members of the Senate whose views about the police powers of the several States coincide with my own surrendered their opinions when they voted simply because they thought it was the wish of the people of their State. That isn't leadership nor representative government in my conception of the term."

"Indeed, lawyers, like statesmen, are losing their influence because they are not telling their clients what is the law and what should be done. Instead, lawyers nowadays are listening to boards of directors and trying to accomplish what those boards want done—often against the best judgment of the lawyers themselves."

The Vice President was indorsed by the Virginia Bar Association for the President's compliment of the occasion, no doubt, for Mr. Marshall isn't a candidate, active, passive, receptive or even interested. May be if he were he wouldn't express himself so frankly.

CONEY TO BE DRY BY INJUNCTIONS

U. S. Attorney Plans to Stop Liquor Sale by Court Restraining Writs.

Coney Island is to be made dry by the injunction process this season. The Volstead Act is not considered to be entirely adequate in curbing the thrifty and their sympathizers. So violators are to be menaced not only with the penalties provided by the act itself, but also with actions for contempt of court, in the province of central and northern Russia and Archangel.

The provincial executive committees are given full power to protect railways, military supplies, magazines and depots and to control telegraphic and telephone communication. A warrant of arrest may be issued on a charge of selling whisky. Starch was discharged on the ground that he knew nothing about it. WANT ALL TO SHARE IN SALARY RAISE

Civil Service Forum to Plan Equitable Distribution of Increase Among City Employees.

The Civil Service Forum, representing 80,000 city employees, is formulating a programme for equitable allocation of salary increases, to be paid out of the $5,000,000 additional indebtedness which the city has been authorized by the Legislature to incur.

Since Gov. Smith signed the bill a few days ago, Controller Craig and other members of the Board of Estimate have been besieged by salary committees, mostly representing the higher salaried city employees.

A committee of the Forum will meet on Monday to plan a fight for fair and equitable distribution, so that no group or grade will be preferred.

Frank J. Friel, Deputy Comptroller, President of the Forum, said some city officials have been promising the firemen and policemen the new salary schedule knowing whether or not they could make good.
